City of Lake Jackson
Brazos River Update
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - UPDATED
Sept. 5, 2017 - 2:30 p.m.

The streets of Strawberry, Dewberry, and Dewberry Court are safe to travel, all utilities are available to the homes in that area, and the flooding threat to that area has diminished. Therefore, the Mayor of the City of Lake Jackson hereby lifts the Mandatory Evacuation only for the above mentioned streets.

The streets of Lake Jackson are becoming safe to travel and the flooding threat to certain areas has diminished. Therefore, the Mayor of the City of Lake Jackson hereby lifts the Voluntary Evacuation only for northwest Lake Jackson (Timbercreek and other subdivisions along and near Lake Rd around Lake Jackson "the lake"); and northeast Lake Jackson (area bordered by FM 2004 on the north; north Yaupon on the west; Old Angleton Rd on the east; and Southern Oaks on the south).

The mandatory evacuation order for the Jackson Oaks subdivisions and the voluntary evacuation for Northwood remain.
